

Amazonas

Experience team situations in a playful and impressive way

The ability of teams to develop good, creative solutions under chaotic conditions is becoming increasingly important. The "Amazon" makes it possible to lead paths to success in an impressive way. The whole team crosses a "swamp" as fast as possible, in which there are some "islands" (e.g. stone blocks). With the help of "lianas" (vertically hanging ropes) and boards (which are a bit too short everywhere) the team moves from island to island to the other shore. The water must not be touched, neither with the body nor with the boards.
